

Gap Between Giants and Braves Continues to Grow; Now Seven Games; Cardinals Getting Near

MANY REACH BASES, BUT FEW GET HOME

Giants Slip Up on Fat Chances and Lose Again to the Cardinals.

RAISE MYRIAD OF FLIES

The Giants met with their fifth consecutive defeat yesterday and slipped down to within one game of the Cardinals, with whom they are unsuccessfully grappling just now. Inability to make headway once on the bases was the primary cause of yesterday's defeat. The Braves beat the Reds, then played a game with them, and the falenders have given them the best scrap they have had in some days. The Brooklynites are pointing for the top of the second division, beating the Pirates and accounting for their ninth consecutive win. The Phillips and Cubs broke even.
